husband and wife,

RESPONDENTS.

OPINION AND ORDER

DATE OF PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE:

May 14, 2009

DATE OF HEARING:

August 27, 2009

PLACE OF HEARING:

Phoenix, Arizona

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

Marc E. Stern

APPEARANCES:

Ms. Wendy Coy, Senior Counsel, on behalf of the Securities Division of the Arizona Corporation Commission.

BY THE COMMISSION:

On March 7, 2009, the Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") filed a Temporary Order to Cease and Desist ("T.O.") and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing ("Notice") against Sports Dimensions, Inc. ("SDI") and Marc Hubbard and Jane Doe Hubbard, husband and wife (collectively "Respondents"), in which the Division alleged multiple violations of the Arizona Securities Act ("Act") in connection with the offer and sale of securities in the form of notes. Jane Doe Hubbard ("Respondent Spouse") was joined in this action pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2031(C) solely for purposes of affirming the liability of the marital community.

The Respondents were duly served with a copy of the T.O. and Notice.

1 On April 24, 2009, an Answer was filed by the Respondent, Marc Hubbard, and while he did
2 not specifically request a hearing, his filing of an Answer was treated as satisfying the requirements
3 of A.R.S. § 44-1942 and A.C.C. R14-4-307 for the purpose of requesting a hearing.

4 On April 30, 2009, by Procedural Order, a pre-hearing conference was scheduled on
5 May 14, 2009.

6 On May 14, 2009, at the pre-hearing conference, the Division appeared with counsel and Mr.
7 Hubbard failed to appear. The Division indicated that it was attempting to reach a settlement with the 8 Respondent, but in the interim requested that a hearing be scheduled.

9 On May 15, 2009, by Procedural Order, a hearing was scheduled for June 18, 2009.

10 On June 17, 2009, the Division and Respondents, Mr. Hubbard and SDI, filed a Joint Motion
11 to Continue the proceeding as they were continuing to negotiate a settlement. The parties further
12 requested that the proceeding be rescheduled after August 13, 2009, to allow time for the approval of 13 a Consent Order. By Procedural Order, the hearing was continued from June 18, 2009, to August 27, 14 2009.

15 On August 27, 2009, a public hearing was commenced before a duly authorized
16 Administrative Law Judge of the Commission at its offices in Phoenix, Arizona. The Division was 17 present with counsel. Respondents failed to appear. Following the presentation of evidence, the 18 matter was taken under advisement pending submission of a Recommended Opinion and Order to the 19 Commission.

20 On October 7, 2009, the Division filed a post-hearing memorandum.

21 * * * * *

22 Having considered the entire record herein and being fully advised in the premises, the 23 Commission finds, concludes, and orders that:

24 FINDINGS OF FACT

25 1. SDI was, at all relevant times herein, a North Carolina corporation that was 26 incorporated in January 2002 and had its principal office in South Carolina. (Ex. S-2 and S-9)

27 2. Respondent Marc Hubbard is an individual who, at all relevant times herein, resided 28

1 outside of the state of Arizona and was the president and CEO of SDI. (Tr. at p. 13) (Ex. S-2, S-6 and
2 S-9)

3 3. There was no evidence submitted with respect to Respondent Jane Doe Hubbard or 4 whether Mr. Hubbard is married.

5 4. Neither SDI nor Mr. Hubbard was registered with the Division as dealers or salesmen,
6 nor has SDI registered any securities for sale in Arizona. (Ex. S-1)

7 5. In support of the allegations raised in the T.O. and Notice with respect to 8 Respondents' alleged violations of the Act, the Division called as its witness, Ms. Peggy Scozzari, a
9 special investigator with the Division.

10 6. According to the Division's investigator, its investigation of the Respondents began
11 after an Arizona resident faxed a letter to the Division which the resident had received from SDI with 12 Mr. Hubbard's name on it as president. (Tr. at p. 41) (Ex. S-6)

13 7. The SDI letter promoted an investment in Series 2009-A Convertible Corporate Notes
14 that were "guaranteed" to yield 30 percent, provided an investor an opportunity to triple their money
15 within 18 months and to make an investment in a "recession-proof industry." (Ex. S-6) The letter
16 also represented that SDI had been in business for "twelve successful years" and the investment was 17 offered in the form of a note yielding 30 percent annually and sold in units of $10,000. The SDI
18 letter further claimed that the notes would be convertible into company common stock at two dollars
19 per share and that, in 18 months, the Company would go public at six to seven dollars per share.
20 According to SDI's promotional letter, the company was involved in the business of promoting 21 concerts.

22 8. The Division's investigator testified that the Arizona resident who received the SDI
23 letter was not an accredited investor.

24 9. The Division's investigator indicated that the Division had not found any evidence of 25 any Arizona investors in SDI's offering. (Tr. at p. 44)

26 10. The Respondents' letter informed prospective investors of a website operated by the 27 Respondents (www.sdiconcerts.com) which would allow access to SDI offering documents. (Ex. S-6)

28 11. During the course of the Division's investigation, it was learned that Respondents,

1 SDI and Mr. Hubbard, had been found in violation of the California Corporations Code and its
2 securities laws in 2006, and the State of Nevada's securities laws in 2009. (Ex. S-4 and S-5)

3 12. Additionally, the Division's investigation revealed that the State of North Carolina
4 also found Respondents SDI and Mr. Hubbard in violation of North Carolina's securities laws in 5 2007.

6 13. Further, the Division's investigation revealed that SDI and Mr. Hubbard appeared to 7 have filed for an exemption from registration with a Regulation D in July 2002. (Ex. S-3)

8 14. On February 23, 2009, after completing an "Investor Accreditation" form¹ online, a
9 Division investigator received an email from Mr. Hubbard as President/CEO of SDI which provided
10 login information to access a Private Placement Memorandum of SDI. (Tr. at p. 24) (Ex. S-7)

11 15. According to Ms. Scozzari, the form had been completed by an undercover
12 investigator. (Tr. at p. 25)

13 16. On February 25, 2009, Respondent Hubbard sent another email to the Division's
14 undercover investigator and attached a PDF version of SDI's offering materials. (Tr. at p. 25) (Ex. S-15 8)

16 17. Although the SDI offering materials for what was purportedly a private placement
17 appeared to require a password from an accredited investor, according to Ms. Scozzari, one could 18 access SDI's website without logging in using a password. (Tr. at p. 26)

19 18. Included within this memorandum was a document which made representations of a 20 guaranteed 30 percent annual return on investment, an opportunity to triple your money within 18
21 months and a representation that the offering was in a "recession-proof industry" similar to the 22 description provided in the letter (Ex. S-6) which had been sent to the Arizona investor earlier in 23 February 2009.

24 19. The SDI offering materials represented that the Company was seeking to raise $10
25 million dollars with its offering and also provided a background on SDI, its management and 26 Respondent Hubbard, indicating that he was its president and CEO. The materials further stated that 27

28 ¹ The purported "Investor Accreditation" form represented and warranted to SDI that an individual who invested with SDI met the requirements of an accredited investor.

1 the company had posted a profit in each year of its operation since 1986 and claimed to have reached
2 $15 million in revenues in 2007. (Ex. S-8)

3 20. The Division's investigator testified that when she was logged in to the Respondents'
4 website, she was able to access what was termed a private placement offering for SDI in the amount
5 of $10 million, for what were called "Convertible Corporate Notes Series 2009-A." (Tr. at p. 28)

6 21. The Division's investigator further testified that the offering specified that a minimum
7 investment of $10,000 was required from an investor, and it promised a 30 percent rate of return. (Tr.
8 at p. 29)

9 22. Although earlier information within the offering materials indicated that SDI had been 10 operating successfully since 1986, at another point reference is made to an eleven year operating
11 history, which conflicted with the earlier statement. (Tr. at p. 31)

12 23. The Division's investigator further described inconsistency in the offering materials
13 when it was referenced that SDI was formed in 1996. (Tr. at p. 32)

14 24. The Division's investigator also read into the record portions of the offering materials
15 which conflicted with one another. (Tr. at p. 36)

16 25. While Respondents' offering materials at one point guarantee a 30 percent rate of 17 return, the Division's investigator subsequently read into the record a statement as follows: "Neither 18 the company nor its affiliates or professional advisors guarantee or warrant the projected results." (Tr.
19 at p. 36) (Ex. S-8)

20 26. The Division's investigator further testified that the California Cease and Desist
21 Order, which pre-dated the private placement offering by SDI referred to previously, was not
22 disclosed in Respondents' offering materials. (Tr. at p. 40)

23 27. Additionally, the investigator stated that the North Carolina Security Division Cease
24 and Desist Order also pre-dated the issuance of the Respondents' private placement memorandum
25 and it was not disclosed either. (Tr. at p. 46)

26 28. According to the Division's investigator, shortly prior to the hearing, Respondents'
27 website was no longer operating. (Tr. at p. 45)

28 29. Under the circumstances, based on the record, a preponderance of evidence establishes

1 that the Respondents, SDI and Marc Hubbard, committed multiple violations of the Securities Act by
2 offering an investment opportunity in a security in the form of promissory notes in a fraudulent
3 manner. It is to the Division's credit that no investors were injured as a result of the Respondents'
4 actions and as a result, the T.O. should be made permanent since Respondents failed to appear and
5 present any evidence which would rebut that presented by the Division. Therefore, Respondents, SDI
6 and Mr. Hubbard, should be held liable for their offering which violated the Act and they should pay
7 an administrative penalty.
